BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Florence Monaghan was an acquaintance of Clara Ford. They shared an interest in gardening, corresponded, and Miss Monaghan occasionally baked and sent cakes to the Fords.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection materials include a diary entitled, "My Trip on The Henry Ford, 2nd, August 1925;" correspondence from Clara Ford; and three letters pertaining to the possibility of a similar trip aboard the ore carrier in the 1960's.

The seven-page diary provides day-by-day details of the trip on board the Henry Ford II. Included are descriptions of passenger facilities and social events during the trip from Dearborn to Toledo, Duluth and return starting August 18, 1925, and returning August 28, 1925. In a letter to Florence Monaghan dated October 1945, Clara Ford speaks of Henry Ford II's release from the Navy during World War II to take the helm of the Ford Motor Company.
